

TE PUKE HIGH SCHOOL

PĀNU

RĀHUI EDITION

The Hawera whānau collaborating on their mahi.

A group of students have transcended borders and lockdowns to collaborate with SKR school in Thailand. They have worked together creating their concept of an "ideal school".

Tehumu working hard at home.

Mr Salmon has been on lots of Bike rides.

One of our amazing homestay whānau making sushi and memories.

Ruhani is planting her seedlings.

Faliesha's painting.

Little Lies
This song has stuck with me since we did it. I read and still hear it at family gatherings with my cousins and the family and when my parents are working hard on something we all smile afterwards looking something on the day. Yet somehow we're not sick off.

Mr Crump's Year 9 music class has been sharing their favourite music and why it's good.

Mrs Travers is teaching at home and online.

Kaiako getting involved in the Friday quiz. Who will win this week?

One of the benefits of learning at home, we get to meet your gorgeous pets!

Amazing painting that people have noticed while out on their hikoi.

Whaea Polly and Mr McGillivray making learning packs. Whaea Shan and some art materials ready to be delivered for akonga.
